At approximately 3:26 P.M., the Mayor introduced a presentation on "Project DTO – Advancing Downtown Orlando" by referring to the State of Downtown Address given in October of last year and a reflection on the accomplishments of Orlando in the last decade. The Downtown Strategic Plan created by the 2003 Downtown Task Force has been instrumental in helping Orlando achieve its many successes; of the 166 recommendations made by the task force, 136 of those recommendations are either complete or in progress. In addition, this year a number of transformative projects in Downtown Orlando will reach completion: SunRail, our new commuter rail line, will begin operations on May 1; both the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts and the reconstructed Orlando Citrus Bowl Stadium will host grand openings this fall. Orlando has an exciting year ahead, and there is still more work to do as we look to Orlando's future. The community will play a key role in determining what's next for Orlando. The City is convening a new Downtown Orlando task force, known as "Project DTO." The members of Project DTO will participate in a visioning and marketing planning process to craft a road map for the continued growth of Downtown Orlando. This task force is unique and important because it allows people who are passionate about Downtown Orlando to have the opportunity to shape its future. Thomas Chatmon, Executive Director of the CRA gave a Power Point presentation on the new Project DTO.
