The document scanning and imaging contract is needed to accompany the reduction of construction plans physically held in the Permitting/Archive office/warehouse after completion and acceptance of projects. Copies of construction plans must be maintained. Ditigal copies reduce the amount of storage required. Permitting nor Achives have the necessary storage space to accommodate the retention of physical construction plans permitted within the city of Orlando for multiple years. Scanned images can be maintain on the City server saving space, staff retrieval time and customer wait time when requesting a copy of a set of plans.
