POLICE DEPARTMENT

MEMORANDUM

TO: Dawn Martin, City Clerk's Office

VIA: Chain of Command

FROM: Claudio Rosado, Vehicles for Hire Unit Supervisor

DATE: November 10, 2014

SUBJECT: Annual Report - October 2013 - September 2014

In accordance with Section 2.124 of the Orlando City Code, the following annual Report is submitted for the Vehicles for Hire Appeal Board.

The Vehicles for Hire Appeal Board, established by Orlando City Code, is composed of five (5) citizen members and is assisted by four (4) City staff members (Legal Advisor, Vehicle for Hire Administrator (designated by Chief of Police), Recording Secretary, Vehicle for Hire Supervisor).

Board's Mission and Purpose:

The Board shall act as advisor to the Mayor and City Council on matters concerning the Vehicle-for- Hire industry and services; and shall also act upon directives of the administration or City Council. The Board has the power to adopt rules and regulations to govern its operations and activities so long as such rules and regulations are consistent with the Chapter. The Board has authority to hear appeals from an administrative decision or interpretation of the Towing Enforcement Administrator and Officers. The Board has the discretion to modify the limitations imposed by Section 55.29(4) of this Chapter only when extraordinary circumstances exist to show the applicant is not a danger to the riding public. Providing the applicant meets the burden imposed by Section 55.29(5) of this Chapter. All decisions by the Board are final and binding unless appealed to City Council.

During the fiscal year, the Vehicle for Hire Appeal Board held four (4) public hearings under the chairmanship of Kelly Klatt with John Fontozzi as Vice Chairman.
