SightPlan, Inc. provides a suite of resident service and asset management tools for the real estate industry, including the fast growing, multifamily apartment sector. The company's mobile and cloud based solutions improve predictability and responsiveness of site operations, resident service and streamlines communications. SightPlan is currently a tenant of the UCF Business Incubator – Orlando.

If the Qualified Target Industry (QTI) program incentive is made available to the company, SightPlan will create 28 new-to-Florida jobs by December 31, 2017, paying an average annual wage of $64,000, which is at least 150% of the Orange County annual wage. The average value of benefits that will be available to employees is $8,500, which includes healthcare and 401(k) contributions, paid vacation and sick leave, employer paid life and disability plans, catered lunches, free parking and access to electrical vehicle charging. SightPlan's total capital investment is estimated to be $280,000 in construction and equipment. In addition to the City of Orlando, the company is considering Texas, Georgia, California, North Carolina, Tennessee and Utah for this project.

The City of Orlando will provide $33,600 as an incentive over a six-year period.
