Describe Event: Art in Odd Places, both visual and performance art scattered from Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts down Magnolia Avenue to the Orange County Regional History Center. Roads will not be shut down during the event, and any art installations that will be placed in the right of way will have 6ft of clearance in compliance of ADA requirements. We have attached a spread sheet with the approved art projects for the event. In addition to Art in Odd Places, Taste of Downtown will be held in conjunction on Thursday, September 17 from 6-9 p.m. Taste of Downtown will showcase local restaurants and their culinary skills in the heart of Downtown Orlando at Heritage Square. The Park will be closed off, and alcohol and food will be sold during the event. Both events will be free to the public.
