

Proclamation

To:

BEN GRAY

The City of Orlando is proud of the service rendered by its employees, who have contributed in no small measure to the enhancement of "The City Beautiful" as one of the most progressive cities in the nation. Progress in municipal government is predicated, for the greatest part, upon the loyalty and efficiency of the employees and on their ability to carry out their duties in the highest tradition of public service.

On the occasion of your retirement from the employ of the City of Orlando after 29 years of service, the Orlando City Council wishes to express its esteem of the sterling qualities manifested in your devotion and loyalty to the City of Orlando.

Now, therefore, I proclaim grateful appreciation of your long and honorable record of faithful service with the City of Orlando and extend best wishes for good health and happiness.

Dated this 1st day of June, 2016.

Buddy Dyer, Mayor
