SUBJECT: Amway Center CCTV Infrastructure-Negotiated Procurement Request

Orlando Venues is requesting approval to procure an infrastructure upgrade to the Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) at the Amway Center via of a negotiated procurement with Johnson Controls. Johnson Controls is the existing service provider for the system at the Amway Center and the quoted service is a turnkey implementation of the American Dynamic Victor Hardware and Software as an upgrade and replacement of the current system. The functionality of the upgrade remains consistent with improvements in the redundancy of the solution and the existing warranty/maintenance agreement will remain intact for its current contract duration. Johnson Control has extensive knowledge of the venue and is an industry leader in security archiver infrastructure in sporting venues. The cost is estimated at $168,920.00 and the funding source is Amway Center capital repair and replacement funds, VEN0004_P.
