Description of Program: The Garden

The Garden is one of Orlando's impact-volunteering programs in Mayor Buddy Dyer's Cities of Service Initiative: ORLANDO CARES, which was launched in 2011. The City of Orlando partners with Orange County 4-H & UF/IFAS, the City's Recreation Division and other partners to engage diverse adult volunteer mentors with elementary-age youth in the 10-week program. The Garden provides a safe and constructive opportunity for youth to learn about gardening, nutrition, wellness and careers in science and agriculture. Volunteer Garden Guides, help participants learn how to grow healthy food in container gardens, hydroponic systems and raised-bed gardens. The Garden program is held in under-served areas of Orlando, giving youth a 'healthy' diversion during non-school hours, as they learn to grow safe and affordable food for their family and community.

Outcomes

Evaluations for the first five-years of the program showed that participants learned teamwork (29%), increased knowledge of gardening concepts (84%) and awareness of agri-science career opportunities (83%). They reported that their involvement with the program helped them to eat healthier, make good choices and stay out of trouble. The Garden contributes positively to youth, families and communities by engaging youth in interesting, healthy learning. Since 2011, more than 1200 students have participated in The Garden in the City of Orlando.

Role of Sodexo Employee Volunteers

The Garden will leverage the support of Sodexo Employee Volunteers in at least two possible ways:

- Garden Guides: Help guide a group of upper elementary youth through a garden-based educational programs, including group activities and dialogue. Anticipated time commitment: at least one hour per week for 10 weeks.
- Garden Caregivers: Help youth in The Garden program maintain their outdoor garden plots by providing supplemental upkeep between garden sessions and beyond. Anticipated time commitment: at least one hour per week for 10 weeks.

Location & Times (See attached for sample weekly topics)

The Garden has been hosted in 14 City of Orlando Community Centers through a partnership with the Recreation Division of the Families, Parks & Recreation Department. The 10 week sessions are held in two or three centers in the Spring (March-May), Summer (June-August) or Fall (October-December), from 3:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. (considered at-risk hours) one day each week.
