During discussion, Raul Perez stated that there should be policy created to ensure that the reason a police officer detains someone is captured on body worn camera. Report to Chief Smith Regarding IR 21-116 and IR-123

After reviewing IR 21-116, the Citizens' Police Review Board did not have any specific recommendations or requests.

After reviewing IR 21-123, Raul Perez had the following recommendation:

"At some point in the detainment process, when the officer deems it safe, ensure that the reason why the person is being detained is captured on camera."

Cheryl Bello asked Raul Perez for clarification on his recommendation, and Raul Perez stated the point of the recommendation is to prove that police officers actually say why they are detaining people by ensuring it is captured on camera, and a discussion ensued.

After a robust discussion, the Board took a vote on whether to approve the above recommendation made by Raul Perez. The Board voted 2-7 with a majority of the Board voting to deny the recommendation. Pedro Aguilar and Raul Perez were the two votes in support of the recommendation.
