Commissioner Patty Sheehan moved and Commissioner Regina I. Hill seconded a motion that the reading of the minutes be waived for the January 11, 2017 City Council meeting and to approve the minutes as written, and City Council voted unanimously to waive the reading and approve the minutes as written.

Mayor's Welcome

Mayor Dyer welcomed students from Orlando Science Schools, Valencia College, University of Central Florida, Florida State University and Stetson University attending today's meeting. Mayor Dyer noted that some of the students are job shadowing in the Real Estate Management Division as part of a program sponsored by Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) to promote career opportunities in commercial real estate. Mayor Dyer invited all students to stand and be recognized. Mayor Dyer also recognized Orange County District 6 Commissioner and Vice-Mayor Victoria Siplin and Ninth Judicial Circuit State Attorney Aramis Ayala and welcomed them to today's meeting.

Awards/Presentations/Recognitions

Proclaiming January 2017 as National Stalking Awareness Month

Mayor Dyer called on Orlando Police Chief John Mina who presented information and statistics related to stalking. Chief Mina spoke of the department's commitment to investigating stalking complaints and protecting victims. Chief Mina noted that the Orlando Police Department participates in the Domestic Violence Task Force, the Fatality Review Board and the Commission on Domestic Violence and Child Abuse, and thanked the Ninth Judicial Circuit State Attorney's Office, the Victim Service Center of Central Florida, Harbor House of Central Florida, UCF Victim Services, Department of Children and Families and the Alliance 2 End Stalking for their valuable partnerships. Mayor Dyer read the proclamation.

Introduction of Minister-Counselor Pierre Max Charles of the Consulate of the Republic of Haiti

Mayor Dyer called on Commissioner Samuel B. Ings who introduced incoming Minister-Counselor Pierre Max Charles as Haitian General for the Consulate of the Republic of Haiti Orlando. Mr. Charles is a career diplomat, having worked for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for more than two decades. Orange County Commissioner Victoria Siplin joined in congratulating Minister-Counselor Charles and thanked the City of Orlando for its support in embracing diverse cultures. Mayor Dyer read a proclamation naming January 12, 2017 as "Remembering Haiti – The Earthquake Day" in the City of Orlando.

Mayor's Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission Day

Mayor Dyer called on Chief Service Officer Marcia Hope-Goodwin who thanked all of the dedicated volunteers that work to support Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s legacy and who presented eighteen events throughout January and February. The following commission members present at today's meeting were introduced and thanked for their service: Chairperson Brandy Hand, Michel Dorcean representing the Greater Haitian American Chamber of Commerce, Corey Johnson representing Orlando Utilities Commission, Lee Nimkoff of Brio Properties, Dawn Ofodile representing University of Central Florida, Marisol Romany representing Orlando Health, Leon Gantt representing Golf Channel, Dean Angela Epps of Florida A&M University College of Law, Courtney Powell of Ace Applications and Kathrine Brownlee representing the Junior League of Greater Orlando.

Densch Charities Inc., Codeye Woody representing Orange County Public Schools, Rick Whitted of JP Morgan Chase and Thomas Yeagers representing MBA Orlando and LGBT Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Dyer read a proclamation declaring January 23, 2017 as "Mayor's Martin Luther King Jr. Commission Day."

25 Year Service Award to Peter Effaldana

Mayor Dyer called on Families, Parks and Recreation Director Lisa Early to introduce Parks Division Cultural Arts Manager Peter Effaldana, who is retiring next month with 25 years of service to City residents. Ms. Early shared memories of Mr. Effaldana's career and Mayor Dyer presented the 25 year service award.

Mayor's Update

Thank you to Orlando Police Department

Mayor Dyer expressed the City's deep appreciation to the Orlando Police Department and Chief John Mina for the tireless work of the entire department in the apprehension of the suspect wanted for killing Orlando Police Lieutenant Debra Clayton on January 9, 2017. Chief Mina extended his personal thanks to the men and women of OPD who continued to perform their duties and protect the community during this difficult time. Lieutenant Clayton was laid to rest on Saturday, January 14, 2017 and will always be remembered as a beloved member of the City family and Orlando Police Department.

NFL Pro Bowl

On Sunday, January 29, the City will host the 2017 National Football League Pro Bowl at Camping World Stadium. The all-star game features the best players in the NFL as determined by a consensus vote among fans, coaches and players. The Pro Bowl will allow Orlando to showcase our thriving city to visitors, provide exposure to millions of football fans watching around the globe, and bring an estimated $30-$40 million economic impact to the city.

At approximately 2:56 P.M. Commissioner Robert F. Stuart left the meeting and returned at 2:59 P.M.
