Scope of Services

New Image Youth Center, (NIYC), is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that has provided crucial afterschool programs and summer camps for at-risk youth in the Parramore community of downtown Orlando for over 20 years. Serving nearly 130 children, teens, and young adults, NIYC offers a wide range of services at no cost, in partnership with the Parramore Kidz Zone. The organization adopts a holistic, trauma-informed approach, supporting the unique needs of each youth and their families while addressing issues like housing and food insecurity, violence, and trauma. NIYC's comprehensive model focuses on academic achievement, health and wellness, life skills development, crisis intervention, and social justice advocacy. By promoting resilience and emotional stability, NIYC helps youth process their experiences and develop coping mechanisms. Recognizing the significant role families play in youth success, NIYC also provides crisis intervention services that connect parents with necessary resources for housing, food security, and mental health support. As a beacon of hope for youth in Parramore and Holden Heights, NIYC is committed to fostering long-term resilience and self-sufficiency. By partnering with the community, NIYC aims to ensure that all children have opportunities to succeed and thrive despite the challenges they face.

List the types of services to be offered:

Tutoring: After-school homework, integrated academic skills support, and STEM activities.
